

14-Day Iberia Coastal Route

A full driving route from Porto to the Algarve with stops, camps, and mileage. Start in Porto and hug the coast south through Aveiro's canals, the cliffs of Nazare, and Lisbon's Belem district before continuing into the Alentejo's cork forests and finishing among the sea caves of Lagos and Sagres. Expect roughly 900km total, with 2-3 nights in each major stop, campsite recommendations along the N120 and A22, and notes on toll roads versus scenic coastal routes.
